

Shey Festival Trek

Trip Overview

Shey Festival Trek, Among the various fairs and festivals celebrated in Dolpo (previously known as Holpo), the Shey Ribo Dugdra (Shey) festival stands as one of the most significant and celebrated events. As the festival is held in the interval of every twelve years, with a history of being celebrated for more than 800 years, it carries a spiritual and historical significance to the locals of the district. This year, the festival will take place from Bhadra 16 to 21, 2081 (September 01 to 06, 2024.) at Shey Sumbo Gumba in Shey Phoksundo Municipality, ward no. 03. The festival centers around Shey Ribo Dugdra also known as the Crystal Mountain. According to the ancient myths and legends, circumambulating this mountain cleanses one's sins and brings prosperity. This rare festival in Nepal attracts locals and monks who perform religious rituals, offer prayers, and engage in various cultural activities, adding a spiritual dimension to the scenic Dolpa trekking experience.

The Shey Festival 2024 is a significant draw for both domestic and international tourists, particularly for those on Dolpa trek. This trek in Nepal provides an exceptional insight on the unique culture and tradition of Dolpa, showcased through vibrant festivities, creating an unforgettable experience for visitors. The festival not only showcases Dolpa's rich cultures but also promotes tourism popularity in the region if given proper attention. Various religious rituals (tsok offering ceremony, chod ceremony, mani Rimdu and more), traditional songs (lama song, folk ballads and many more), dances (cham dance, yak dance, snow lion dance, and many more) and local cuisine are some of the highlights of this one-of-a-kind festival in Nepal. Visitors can also purchase handmade crafts and souvenirs from local artisans, gaining insights into the traditional arts and craftsmanship of Dolpo.

Trekkers visiting during the Shelri Dugdra (Shey) festival can also explore Dolpo's stunning landscapes, including the pristine Phoksundo Lake, the ancient monasteries and surrounding several notable breathtaking mountains such as Kanjirowa Himal, Crystal Mountain and many others featured in Dolpo trekking itineraries. The Shey festival is a celebration of Dolpo's unique cultural heritage. It provides an opportunity for locals and tourists alike to experience the traditional ceremonies, cultural performances and communal gatherings that define the region. As Dolpo preserves its cultural identity the festival plays a vital role in fostering unity and cultural pride among its people, making Dolpo an even more enriching trekking experience.

The 67th Shelri Dugdra Festival Organizing Committee, this festival is a grand celebration which could be organized due to the collaboration of many rural municipalities including Shey Phoksundo, Dolpo Buddha and Chharka Tangsong rural municipalities as well as WWF and many other organizations have provided their financial support for this festival celebration. The organizing committee have said of targeting around 15000 participants for this upcoming festival. Many hotels, guesthouses or homestays in collaboration with the neighboring villages around Shey Gumba are arranged as accommodation for both domestic and international tourists. For emergency purposes, many helicopters and flights are said to have been set in sidelines for the convenience of the guests or in case of emergency by the organizing committee.
