

Dhorpatan Trek

Trip Overview

Dhorpatan is situated in Baglung, Rukum and Myagdi District, an east-west valley south of the Dhaulagiri mountain range in Nepal. Dhorpatan Trekking is an adventurous trekking in Nepal and off-the-beaten-path Himalaya trekking experience in Nepal, situated in the Dhorpatan Hunting Reserve. Dhorpatan trek offers a unique blend of stunning alpine landscapes, rich biodiversity, and insights into traditional Nepali culture. Trekkers traverse through lush forests, meadows, and picturesque villages while soaking in breathtaking views of the Dhaulagiri and Annapurna mountain ranges. The Dhorpatan Trek is renowned for its diverse flora and fauna, making it a haven for wildlife enthusiasts and bird watchers. Dhorpatan trekking is an exceptional opportunity to explore the lesser-known regions of Nepal and immerse in the beauty of its natural surroundings.

Dhorpatan Hunting Reserve was established in 1983 and gazetted in 1987. The management objectives of the reserve are to allow sports hunting and preserve a representative high-altitude ecosystem in West Nepal. Few cottages or shelters are accessible to hunters with valid hunting and entry permits.

The Rukum, Myagdi, and Baglung Districts are bordered by the Dhorpatan Trekking in the west of Nepal, which runs along the Dhaulagiri Himal range.

Both Tibetan refugees and the indigenous Kham Magar people live together in a small settlement. And the main economic activity of the locals in the area are animal husbandry, handicrafts, and minor tourism.
