

Ama Dablam Expedition

Trip Overview

Mount Ama Dablam stands stunning with its most impressive mountain peaks at the centre of the Khumbu valley in Nepal,. Ama Dablam Expedition is located in Solukhumbu district, Nepal. The mountain is known simply for its beauty and the pure exposure running high on its sides. Mount Ama Dablam was first climbed by Mike Gill, Barry Bishop, Mike Ward, and Wally Romanes in 1961 using its southwest ridge. The name of the mountain originated from the glacier lying on its Southwest face. The literal meaning of Mount Ama Dablam is “Mother’s Necklace.” Mount Ama Dablam and Mt. Matterhorn, in the Alps, look a lot like each other in shape.

Ama Dablam climbing is the third most popular mountain climbing in Nepal and is permitted for Ama Dablam expeditions in Nepal. Mount Ama Dablam peak is most adventurous peak in Nepal, but it is advisable that all climbers have a good understanding and practice of the skills of climbing on steep rock and hard, dense ice, although most parts of the climbing routes will have fixed ropes. The top of Ama Dablam Peak measures 6814m above sea level and is a technically difficult and extremely challenging Mountain in Nepal ice, rock, scrambling, breathtaking views, great approaches, and an amazingly situated base camp in a pasture with a stream. At the peak of Mt. Amadablam, one can also have some attractive views of some of the world’s famous 8000der mountain ranges, like Mount Everest 8848 m, Mount Lhotse 8516 m, Mount Makalu 8485m, Mount Cho Oyu 8201m, etc.

Ama Dablam Expedition is one of the best destinations in the Mahalangur Himal range, which is around 7000m peaks in the Nepal Himalaya.
